Home Cooking Report

Cooking at home may be done as:

- make up for a missed lab (you must prepare the recipe that you missed) up to 10 pts
- Extra credit. Recipe may be from class or your own recipe. up to 5 pts
- Monthly home-cooking homework. up to 10 pts

You may repeat a recipe done in class or you may select a recipe of your own choosing. To qualify as "cooking" the food prepared must have at least 4 ingredients & 4 techniques. Making a piece of toast or heating up bagel bites doesn't count. You may not turn in a Home Cooking Report for the same food twice.

Recipe you prepared: _____
